THE RICHMOND DISPATCH.

BY THE DISPATCH COMPANY.

The DAILY DISPATCH to delivered to sub thers at FIFTEEN CENTS per week, payable to e carrier weekly. Mailed at $6 per annum, Wor six menths; $1.50 for three months; 50a

The SEMI-WEEKLY DISPATCH at $2 per an-The WEEKLY DISPATCH at $1 per annum.

The SUNDAY DISPATCH at $1.50 per annum, Subscriptions in all cases payable in advance and no paper continued after the expiration of the time paid for. Send post-office money-order check, or registered letter. Currency cont by mail will be at the risk of the sender. Subrive their old as well as their new post-office.

ADVERTISING RATES

clergy, physicians, literature, science, educa- of modern times. kers, patienthropy, inventors, and musicians. The North builds monuments and memo-other day, is a northern publication, got- stantly diminishing, and with daily-growten up to make money, seeks largely a ing inequality in everything that makes expedition have just returned from La-northern market, and the sketches are war effective. lustration of the grossest sectional injus- give credit for such an outcome. tice which governs such business ventures. In the series Jackson, Manison, Monnor, HENRY and Cannors are included. Only one biography was entrusted to a southern gards the Dardanelles incident is not as man. Calhers was committed to a for- excited as it was a week ago, it is none the eigner, Von Holer, whose writings show an less ominous, and the situation appears tween the civilization of New England tion. For some time the shadow of the and the Middle States on the one side and hand of France has been visible through of the southern States on the other, says: which that ability has been displayed," and syndicates, in "bulling" and "bear matist as Satismusy has proved himself to duties so unpleasant, so degrading and ing," and in a thousand other ways dark and mean, which are of no good to countificate, as the could no more withstand instruited to duties so unpleasant, so degrading and instruited to duties so unpleasant, so degrading and instruited to compel them to accept hitherto been he could no more withstand. hold that there is an infinite range of selection as to and within the "profeswhich "ability" may be shown, and, also, his repertory of "ability," and Massachu-870 of them. Under "philanthropy" he enumerated have no "business" ability, and fifteen are such barbarians as to be gnorant of "philanthropy." Not to let the left hand know what the right hand doeth in sweet charity is to secure exclusion from the modern "test" of civilization. Mr. Longe may not be censurable for this absurd classification beyond accepting with self-complacency a repository of facts on which he bases his illogical ought to be duly grateful, that the South comparatively strong in "statesmen." Lord Salishuar, England's sarcastic Prime Minister, said some time ago: "It is pigs who nowadays rule the political world." A tariff war in regard to pigs has brought about some serious differences between Austria, Hungary, and Servia. The transit of Roumanian swine has caused disagreaduction of American pork has been almost the sole diplomatic question between Ger-many and the United States since the Indiana equal to Texas, Alabama,

There is no final appeal in matters of sary for the peace of Europe for years to and Mr. W. D. Howentz claim to have disliterary taste. The Contemporary Rector come is that the strain the Czar and France covered a new poet, and his name is Witnesses as a to the poetry of our time we are putting upon them shall be ended, and his name is Witnesses, of Liverpool. They accord are putting upon them shall be ended. born to be Browningites or Tennyso- it is immaterial whether that consummation nians." "Under which king, Bezonian?" shall be reached by bringing matters to a TENNYSON. is the constant challenge ringing out thead by striking in Southeast Europe or trom the adherents of contending schools. The "Athens of America" may well claim honorable and uncontested distinction scribers wishing their post-omes changed must for her Lonorganow and Lowenz and In view of the appeal about to be made Holmes and Whitten (if he be a Bos- to Congress by the Columbian-Fair Com- incidentally the political history of this toman), but we must be excused from un-missioners for a loan of $5,000,000 to keep Horms and Whitten (if he be a Bostoman), but we must be excused from uniquing loyalty to the detate of a city which has "Kipling evenings" and, perday which has "ken blook. The same time a deighting its readers with a republication of "Historical Studies" by thousands of immigrants, yet that is the form will publish about the same time a delighting its readers with a republication of "Historical Studies" by the state of the book. The same ships and privations, and the read travelled whas that passed over subsequently by circular and address. It is and sent throughout the Commonwalth official was that passed over subsequently by displayed which advice, as is well and travelled was that passed over subsequently by the state of the book. The same time a coliection of "Historical Studies" by the funds of the grandions of immigrants, yet that is is t Smeaths.

Subsection of the permissions results of slavery upon that that city be selected as the place for line on "Captain John Serth."

In the permissions results of slavery upon that that city be selected as the place for line on the finest races." In his eager haste the exhibition. to justify his chronic "bloody-shirtism"

Card of rates for more space furnished on aplication.

The seager masse

the exhibition.

Chiego was then all brag and bluster.

Chiego was then all brag and bluster.

She promised everything, pledged every acts, he fallato are hore blusters and bluster.

She promised everything, pledged every acts, he fallato are hore blusters and bluster. the western States, where slavery never houses and pay workmen, the commisexisted even to the extent it did in New sloners have appointed a committee of England and the Middle States.

England and the Middle States, present, in the tables, as little ability in literature, $1,000,000.

England and the Middle States, present, twelve to be seech Congress for the loan of call subject. Junes Vense and Alexander States.

As we have heretofore stated, Hxxxx Capor Lopor, who has wen some reputation as a writer and as a scholar in polities, havan article in the last Capury on the adversal education, even of the above subject. It is thoughtful, suggestive, apparently frank, and shows that the material used as the basis of investigation was weighed with some care and thorroughness. Some of the conclusions we quote.

Tale of West and East." It is a story of America and India. The principal characters in the African, we do not care to deay that slavery had a double set of influences on the masters, elevating and degrading and degrading and simultaneously, arbitrariness of will and resentation which did not favor universal education, even of the white race, nor stimulate the faculty of mechanical invention, nor diversify the products of industry, nor create spheres of intelligent usefulness for a large portion of the United States Book Company in Lonproducts. Some of the conclusions we quote.

"The oldest communities, with the largest most profile of and Connection have been most profile of and Connection to the proportion of $5,000,000 and perform the first the managers have almost excellence.

It will be folly for them to count upon lative student of company in London.

Mrs. Bearon Harmson, the author of "The Anglomaniacs," has written a new novel of New York life which the United States Book Company in London.

Mrs. Bearon Harmson, the dunit of the United States Book Company in London.

Mrs. Bearon Harmson, the full will be folly for them to count upon lative student of connections that the percentage of a will be folly for them to count upon the first the united States Book Company in London.

It will be folly for them to count upon the united States Book Company in London.

Mrs. Bearon Harmson, the full United States Book Company in London.

The Will be folly for them to count upon the united States Book Company in London.

The Will be folly for them to count upon the united States Book Company in London.

The Will be folly for them to count upon the united States Book Company in London.

The Will be folly for them to cou

Connectical leads every other State in the total amount of shifty."

(Calculus: to the science of war, our purse.

(Compress, we suppose, can be counted on to save the Expedition from failure, but the managers may be surethen it is not the managers may be surethen it is not question." at the top of the laider and did question." at the top of the laider and did business, eacheers, architects, and abundantly after the most exhausting war going to vote them $5,900,000.

statesmen and phoneers,"

"The production of ability has been remark—ever devised by a government. It fills its I Feel Badly"? The Names of Printers' comparatively few States. Two States, Massachusetts and New York, have formished more than a third of the ability of the entire country.

Three, Massachusetts, New York, and Pennsylvania, have supplied almost caucity one half, and five, Massachusetts, New York, and Pennsylvania, Connecticut, and Virginia, have produed two thirds of the total amount. * The in cohesion, and provoked to unforgivechief the work of the pennsylvania, Connecticut, and Virginia, have produed two thirds of the total amount. * The in cohesion, and provoked to unforgivecision in a Horse Trade: The Founders of of conscience. Six months later he goes

"Robert Elsmere" type. Boeter Lamar Soldiers Furnished to the Confederacy by Each State: Treatment of Garget in Cowst Interest afflicted with incurable cancer, and, suffering terribily, begs her husband
About Street-Car Transfers: How to Fill a Vacancy in the Office of Constable: Dedued two thirds of the total amount. * The in cohesion, and provoked to unforgivecision in a Horse Trade: The Founders of of conscience. Six months later he goes for Kew England and the four Middle States furnish together almost exactly three quarters of the ability of the country. If Virginia he emitted it also appears that Massachusetts alone has furnished a little more, and New York only a triffe less ability than all the southern and western States together."

In concern, and revenge and extraordinary efforts by mixrepresentation and slander of the opponents in the striffe. No page in the historic annals of the North shines so brightly as that which records the mothres, the spirit, the achievements of sudders and spirit, the dehrevements of sudders and ability sognit every channel for expression, and was displayed in various ways."

These conclusions are based on data supplied by the six volumes of Appleton's "Encyclopsedia of American Biography."

In which Mr. Lorow found 14,213 names, which he classified and tabulated by States, torgroups, by race, and by profession or occupation. An obvious difficulty lay in discriminating quality from quantity, but this was overcome by taking the portraits inserted in the text as a test of the relative superiority of the portraits inserted in the biographical do not the store of the portraits inserted in the biographical do not the store of the portraits inserted in the biographical do not the store of the portraits inserted in the biographical do not the store of the portraits inserted in the biographical do not the store of the persons menicaled in the biographical dorselves the portraits inserted in the biographical dorselves the portraits inserted in the biographical dorselves and four long was presented for the relative superiority of a bandful of men, band by the store of the part of the relative superiority of a bandful of men, band and that it is not account for the seeming disfavor to the first own had be accounted in the biographical dorselves and four long the part of t written, we venture to say, in ninetr-fire | Surely a civilization bearing such fruits | Ningara cithat country, which is fifty miles instances out of a hun ired by northern must have had excellences of which the from Lake Wamininkapou. Their journey men. The insertion of portraits was pure- best interests of humanity demand the was not without peril and hardship, but

The Situation Abroad.

While the tone of the foreign press as reentire ignorance of our Constitution and of Mr. Carnoux's political philosophy.

The article in drawing a contrast between the conditional philosophy. the curtain that intervenes between th The surest tests of civilization in any publicand diplomacy at Stamboul, and the community are the amount of ability produced and the variety of directions in ela, that hand is endeavoring to influence the Sultan to demand British evacuation all controversies definition as of pri- of Egypt and attempt the deposition of the mary importance, and civilization needs a | Ehedive. It is easy to understand that careful delimitation to exclude a large should the Porte yield to this influence the chances of an immediate crisis would be amount of ability, such as might be dis-played in bank robberies, in official defailmaterially increased. British patience above bim "

The alloge cations, in forgeries, in picking pockets, with Turkish duplicity is already well-nigh in buying legislatures, in organizing trusts ethnusted, and as consummate a diplo try or to mankind. We may accept, how. the pressure of the war spirit at home ever, the general rule as true, and then should it develop, than could Abradans.

bold that there is an infinite range of Great Britain has about as much intention of relaxing her grasp upon Egypt as which "ability" may be shown, and, also,

Under present conditions the two propoover, she would not consent to the deposi-tion of the Khedive so long as he continues to serve her purposes as well as at setts, Pennsylvania, and New York furnish | present. What, then, would be the direct outcome of the Sultan's taking the steps classifies 221, and there same prolific States furnish 145. Eight of the thirty-one States chumerated have no "business" ability itself with marked distinctness. ever there are probabilities which obtrude themselves in connection with the pro-blem that at least afford instructive study. The day has passed when a Sultan of Turkey could successfully imitate a Ma-Maguificent. Turkish dominion, not only It is graciously conceded, for which we

Islam, exists through toleration and the necessities of Europe, and not through the power that determined Kosovo and Monacs, overthrow the Byzantine empire. conquered Recease, thundered at the very from many persons unknown to him but gates of Rome, crushed the Mamelukes, who claimed acquaintance through faand seized the sacred banner.
But it is still possible for a Khedive to fill in part the role of a MEHRMET ALL, own lines, written when he was a young Truers is known to be ambitious to fill man: this role, so far as the Soudan is con-

ments with a Vienna cabinet. The intro- cerned, and in view of the now mere nominal control Turkey has over Egypt and much other of her tributary territory that ambition might assume a wide Franco-Prussian war. The wittlessm of scope. Thereta's army, as was Mahamar the Prime Minister had, doubtless, a Am's, has been trained by European officovert reference to the swinish stu- cers, and if the Dreibund can be depended pidity of many who are charged with upon to take care of Russis and France, as civil functions and manage to get the utterances of the semi-official journals dispose of them is a problem as puzzling themselves into national biographics of Berlin and Vienna indicate is the as the location of Richmond's crematory. as statesmen. Scholar, perhaps, excepted, case, British influence, British money, and as they are no title is so recklessly applied as that British guns may be found openly arcrematory. of statesman. There are statesmen and rayed with the libedive. A war upon the statesmen, and it is a very vague descrip. Arabs by the Khedive in his capacity as tion when, under the same term, are in- a subject of the Ports would be quite a difcluded Pentous and Cleox, Wenster and ferent thing in its effect upon the Mahom-HOAR, WOODBURY and CHANDLES. A classi. | medan world from an issue with the Sul-Seation is obviously false or defective | tan on the question of succession, and no which makes Vermont equal and Maine Power would know better than Great superior to Georgia, Connecticut ahead of | Britain how to turn this fact to advanth Carolina and Tennessee combined, tage, not only in Africa, but among the Shiah Mahommedans in the East. As far da, Miseasippi, and Missouri. As the as can be seen by present lights it must Florida, Missessippi, and Missouri. As the as can be seen by present lights it must a novel by EDMUND PENDLETON, to be word "statesmen" is used with such elasity as to comprehend "reformers" and pendent of their connection with the Triple " It is possible that Gammon. Alliance, would find it to be to their inter-

Folson, Luceria Mott, et if omne genus of fanatics are classed with Webster, Winteren, Adams, Blaine, Pierce, Woodbury, and Gener, in order to swell the list from Hungary also. It makes but little difference the counternance of the press persists in making the rounds of the rounds of the press persists in making the rounds of the press persists in making the rounds of the r Out of 2,001 engaged in literature Massachusetts. Connecticut, New York, and Pennsylvania are credited with 1,537.

There is no final area of the Dardanelles. What is necessary to the ereator of the Besant. There is no final area of the Dardanelles. What is necessary to the creator of the Besant.

science, as little ability in interature.

science, art, music, pollanthropy, business, architects, actors, as the readily-condemness southern States.

Exempling for the consistent the effect of the consistent of the security offered is nothing. No doubt the security offered is nothing.

The members of the Bowdoin Scientific arbitrary. In the American-states, preservation. Only purblind prejudice or was successfully accomplished. As they narrowest partisanship can fail to see and neared the falls a magnificent sight-spread 500 yards, narrowing until it reaches the falls to a width of only 50 yards. The New York Times charges that the present Acting Rear Admiral, Jone G. Walkes, advanced himself not only number by number, but rank by rank, by pushing forcibly on to the retired list, through the power of his office, old and renowned officers standing in his way

The alloged tacties of Warnen, when Chief of the Bureau of Navigation, was to assign the old admirals and commodores to duties so unpleasant, so degrading and S. Wirmens, himself an author, and whose retirement as the only alternative.

When the whole community bears down on a swepsper and demands that a given item covers be published it requires more courage or the part of the publishers to suppress the iter an it does to print it. - Denville Register.

Is there any community in this land that is satisfied with its newspapers? The author of the article in the Century on country papers says as to them tha

The Danville Register sagely says that Manone cannot be trusted even when he pretends not to be fighting."

The statistics of the Board of Health show that diphtheria is rapidly disappear-

Literary Notes.

Dr. OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES's eighty-second birthday occurred on August 29th He is in good health and spirits and complains only of his eyesight, which is failfrom noted men all over the country and miliarity with his writings. Doubtless the genial autocrat often quotes to himself his

"And if I should live to be The last leaf upon the tree In the spring, Let them smile, as I do now,
At the old foreaken bough

Where I cling."

It is said that there are three million volumes of unsold novels lying on the shelves of the Paris publishers and that the number increases every day. How to As they are French novels we suggest a Hangen & Buorness are preparing as illustrated edition of "Ben Hur" for the holidays. It will contain upwards of three thousand illustrations, and the work of making them has been going on for months. PORTER & COATES, of Philadelphia, are getting out an edition de luze of Carlyle's "French Revolution." D. AFFLETON & Co. are about to publish zon is a Virginian, we believe. The sister of HEINERCH HEINE intends to

WENDELL PHILLIPS, JOHN BROWN, MAY, ABET | est to accord with any policy the British | publish the letters written to her by her to the signatory powers to the Triple Alii- the creator of "Uncle Remus" sixty-three

"Marie Antoinette at the Tulleries" is the next volume in the Famous Women of the French Court to be published by the SCRIBNEAS. It will be ready this month. he is a relative of the late eminent histo-The vicissitudes of the Royal Pamily and rian, Leoroto Von HANKE.

demned southern States.

Excluding for the occasion the effect of slavery on the African, we do not care to considerable sum, but certainly nothing Tale of West and East." It is a story of America and India. The principal charac-

desired the windows will great time of each lives were desired to the committee of two to the control of the committee of two to the control of the control and western States together."

"If we surafrom the distribution by totals and extenses together in the southers and southwestern States, together and southwestern States, together in the southers and southwestern States, together, in surgers, they are wark in all the southers and southwestern States, together, in surgers, they are wark in all the southers and southwestern States, the states. It has always the southers and southwestern States, the states, including the war between the States. It has always the south and the south but little variety of inclination, the most glaring court addition, the south but little variety of inclinations in the South but little variety of inclinations and little variety of inclinations of little variety of inclinations and little variety of

This is a book worth baving. The bio

PALMERSTON, Lord SHAFTERBURY, JOHN ALLEGHANY COUNTY COURT CASES. BRIGHT, WILLIAM EDWARD FORSTER, LOTE BEACONSFIELD, HENRY FAWCETT (the blind Postmaster-General), and William Ewant GLADSTONE. An authentic portrait accompanies each sketch. The author had the before them. The spray was visible for privilege of personal acquaintance with twenty miles. The water flows through a canyon formed of archean rock—the sides of which rise to a height of 100 feet. The information concerning them not to of which rise to a height of 100 feet. The information concerning them not to height of the falls has been exaggerated, be found in other biographics. She and while presenting a grand and beautiful has given succinet yet sufficiently desight, they measure only 200 feet in the tailed descriptions of the chief labors of perpendicular. The rapids increase the the statesmen named, whether they total altitude of the falls to 500 feet. Above the falls the width of the river is debates or literary schievements. As the property of these of parts, narrowing until it reaches the author truly says, "the history of Great Bri. Bush. The defence showed upon cross. Shall the Court-House Be Moved?—Bust ness Activity and Building.

the book is a gein.

Withrood Chimes. By Essea Withens.
ROSENT CLARKE & Co., Cincinnati. Cloth.

of Sir Waltze Scott. The fair young assisted by two lady teachers. The attendance is good, and this school promises has interpreted some of the latter's phases with true postic insight and delicacy of expression and feeling. She sings chiefly of the woods and the mountains and her notes are often as clear and sweet as are those of are often as clear and sweet as are those of ing. houses are being built and rented out the highest of her rative forces. This characteristic is and numerous buildings have been let to contract. In fact, every department of ing.houses are being built and rented out the birds of her native forest. This is the opening of a rather lengthy poem called 'In Camden Wood":

"He who would stay his fainting faith Should breathe the hill's inspiring breath; And nerve his spirit for the strife With echoes of the brown quail's fife. If he would hide one summer day From care's corroding touch away. Let him go where beyond the town, The woodland sits in silken gown, And safe within her faithful hold Here is a forest picture: "This is the forest free and wild, Unkept of man and undefiled With are and saw of lumberman, Though oft his thrifty glances scan The poplars fair and walnuts brown With calculation swift and near Of just how many cubic feet. This is the forest free and grand, As fashioned by creative hand; No knife has pruned the underbrush, Beneath whose tangled tresses blush The fragile flowers of the shade, In dainty loveliness arrayed,

In careless mood had dropped them there." Here are two stanzas from a poem called Uncrowned," which are melody itself: "Yes, pause where the heroes are sleeping And garland their graves with the best Well won are the wreaths on each breast

Well won are the song and the story That honor the brave and the true; And long may the incease of glory Encircle the Gray and the Blue.

"But when with the battle-flags trailing, With war's thrilling requiems said, You pass with the drum's muffled wailing From the myrtle-paved streets of the dead. I know that in by-ways foreaken, Where only the wind's hellow sound The desolate silences waken

The bravest are lying uncrowned." • • • There are blemishes in these lines, but the melody is perfect. We close with this stanza from "Castles of Hope," which contains a very beautiful figure:
"There are faces more fairthan the pale silver light That gles me from the bow of a fast-waning

meon, And the voices are softer than rain in the nigh

When it fulls on the petals of roses in June."

An Account of the Baptist Exodus from Virginia to Kentucky in 1781 under the leadership of Eev. Lewis Carlo and Captain William Killin. With Historical Notes. By General W. Rance, author of O'Hara and his Elegies; History of Lexington. Ky.; Girty, the White Indian; Sketches of Kentucky History, etc. Louisville; 1891.

This is a deeply interesting and valuable The author, Professor little brockurs. The author, Professor RANCE, has been among the foremost in historical investigation in his native State (Kentucky) and has published many valuto him extravagant praise, rating him with able contributions to American literature. He was one of the promoters of the Kentucky Historical Society and is a prominent educator. His ancestors have been in this country for several generations and

The exodus which is here so graphically depicted was from Spotsylvania county. made, and which advice, as is well known, inquiring loyalty to the dictate of a city the enterprise from coming to a dead halt from Versailles in 1789 to the end of 1791. The march was attended with many hard-

ALLEGHANY COUNTY COURT CASES.

Mrs. Witcher Alias Resident Bash Discharged—Springs Tourists at Cevington.

[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

County Court which has been in assion here for the past two days adjourned at 7 octoox yesterday evening. The criminal docket is verylarge here such the time of the Court was taken up by the work of a special grand jury and trying the criminal cases.

Faunic Turner, indicted for grand larceny, was found guity and sentenced to one year in the peniteatiary. Her defence was ably conducted by Meade F. White, Commonwealths attorney for Augusta.

Mrs. Wileher are no right for which the proposed marshes of this city, were yesterday fined by Justice Taylor, of france George county, for trespass in hunting upon the posted marshes of Mr. Capting. It is understood to-day that counsel has been engaged to test the logality of the Justice's decision, it being alleged that the slieged trespass was not committed within the jurisdiction of Prince George, but on the Chesterheld side of the river. It is also favored that other linguistic may be a subject to the county for the subject of the Justice's decision, it being alleged that the slieged trespass was not committed within the jurisdiction of Prince George, but on the Chesterheld side of the Justice's decision, it being alleged that the slieged trespass was not committed within the jurisdiction of Prince George but on the Chesterheld side of the Justice's decision, it being alleged that the slieged trespass was not committed within the jurisdiction of Prince George but on the Chesterheld side of the Justice's decision, it being alleged that the slieged trespass was not committed within the jurisdiction of Prince George but on the Chesterheld side of the Justice's decision, it being alleged that the slieged trespass was not committed within the jurisdiction of Prince George county for trespass in hunting upon the posted marshes of Mr. Capting the posted marshes of Mr. Capting the posted marshes of Mr. Capting the posted marshes of the Subject of the Justice Taylor, of trance George county, for

The Hotel Interment, built at a great cost and recently thrown open to the public, has been crowded with boarders and poems by a young lady of West Virginia, who is the granddaughter of Alexanoun S. Wirekers, himself an author, and whose maternal grandmether was a near relative of Sir Waltze Scott. The fair young authoress is an ardeat lover of nature and has interpreted some of the latter's phases.

A storping foint.

The Hotel Interment, built at a great cost and recently thrown open to the public, has been crowded with boarders and present out fast trains. This is a marvellous improvement. The suggestion made by "an irresponsible over the new branch road from this place. A gris' school of high grails was opened here on Monday by Mrs. Charles L. Clarke assisted by two lady teachers. The standard present of the latter's phases to be a valuacle addition to our town.

FURNACE AND SECT.

as last as they are commenced.

Ex-Governor James A. Besver, of Pennsylvania, is expected next week to visit some of his relatives at this place.

Miss Hattie, daughter of E. M. Nettledays, but is better at this writing.

C. B. Cushing, editor of the Sendael, is visiting friends in Southwest Virginia.

APPOMATTOX ELECTION CONTEST. Demurrer Sustained and the Case Dismissed-Appeal Taken.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.) APPOMATION COUNTROUSE, Va., September

tion, and in a very able and forcible man-ner gave his reasons wherein the petition was faulty, which was replied to by Mr. Franklin. The rejoinder or Judge Mann to Mr. Franklin's speech was one of the ablest ever heard at the Appomattor bar, and indeed was so replete with wit and sareasm that Mr. Franklin could not stand the pressure and left the court-room in disgest.

The Weekly Disputch.

an eight-page, 64-column newspaper and magazine of general information, is only $1 per annum. the question-often asked before-why Smoke the " Nickleby." corn, the cheapest and most nutritious of Best Cigar on the market, the European markets. The answer is easy to give. The poorer classes of Europe won't eat oorn in any form. They do not like corn-meal in por-Hickok's No. 1, H. D. C., Fig, and Caro-hne Sun-Cured are Fure, Clean, and Choice Sun-Cured Tobaccos. Try them.

man, who advises that no nominations be has been adopted by the State Committee able to General Mahone, the State chair-price. "It is just as a man is raised."

Democrats Show the Way to Campaign Newadays.
[By telegraph to the Dispatch.]

Washington, September 12.-A tour of the Pacific coast by several promusent Democrats which will be begun to-mornemocrats, which will be begun to mor-row, is a departure in the way of campaign-ing. The nominal object of the journey is to attend the second annual convention of to attend the second annual convenient of the Democratic societies of the State of Washington, which will be held at Spekane. It is their purpose, however, to do active campaign work at along their route, which will include a large part of the Northwest and far West, finally closing with a week's participation in the campaign in lows. They will leave the city at II o'clock to morrow on the Balaimore and objected and make their first stop at St.

tain during the last half of the nineteenth century." "They loved and served their country, and have helped her to reach an exalted position among the nations." In binding printing, paper, and illustrations the book is a gent.

Withread Chimes. By Emma Withrens.

Withread Chimes. By Emma Withrens.

The Hotel Interment, built at a great engine attached to the fast trains. This is a maryellous improvement.

WHITE-PINE TIMEER DYING. Your correspondent was recently on a from correspondent was recently on a true through fach country. Va. and Poca-houtes county, W. Va. and was surprised to find that through that entire section the white-pine timber is dying. Upon ex-amination into the cause it is discovered be the work of small worms working as under the bark. In passing along the The weather here has been unusually cool for the last week. Summer via mosquitos are fast disappearing.

SAFELY DEMOCRATIC

HOW THE FOURTH DISTRICT WAS REDEEMED BY HARD WORK.

Conquering Against Great Odds—Revenue Collections in This District—An Interesting Case.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

Prisherung, Va., September 12.—So far as surface appearances indicate, the Republicans in this section will make no nominations for the General Assembly. The party has no effective organization and the controlling influences are favorable to General Mahone, the State chairs at many and they detest hominy. Immigrants to this country do not take kindly to it. The quantity do not favorable his country do not take kindly to it. The quantity do not favorable his country do not take kindly to it. The quantity do not favorable his country do not take kindly to it. The quantity do not favorable his country do not favorable his country do not favorable his country do not s

A NEW DEPARTURE.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla The Best Blood Medicine

So say Leading Physicians and Druggists, and their opinion to indorsed by thousands cured by it of Scrofula, Eczema, Erysipelas, and other discases of the blood.

"Ayer's Sursaparilla has won its rep tation by years of valuable service to the community. It is the best "- E. S. Land, Druggist, 212 Merritanck at, Lowell, Mass. Dr. W. P. Wright, Paw Paw Ford, Tenn., says: "In my practice, I invariably pre-scribe Ayer's Sursaparilla for chronic dis-Dr. R. B. Boyle, Third and Oxford sts.,

I the blood."
L. M. Robinson, Pharmacist, Sabina, O., certifies: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla has always been a great seller. My customers think there is no blood-purifier equal to it."
"For many years I was afflicted with one of my legs to save my life. I began taking Ayer's Sarsaparula and seen saw an improvement. After using about two dozen bottles the seres were healed. I continue to

Don't fail to get

Ayer's Sarsaparilla PREPARED BY DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

blood-purifiers, but none does so mu-ined on Monday.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

[Special telegram to the Dispat (Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

Linchsum, Va., September 12.—Judge Breathed, an old and well-known citizen, died here last night at midnight.

The collections of internal revenue for the Circuit Court, but with scarcely a shadow of a chance for success.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

Linchsum, Va., September 12.—Judge Breathed, an old and well-known citizen, died here last night at midnight.

The collections of internal revenue for this (the Sixth) district for the week ended the contestant's petition. An appeal was taken to the Circuit Court, but with scarcely a shadow of a chance for success.

Opposition to Court.

Opposition to Court. something more? If you don't get both

(New York Herald, Editorial.)
The high price of breadstuffs abroads suggesting throughout the western States MCADAMS & BERRY. the grains, should not be sent largely to ELIXIR BABEK,

NEW GRANITE BEILDS

Tapestry Carpetent

The vast amount dies down and the year develo Philadelphia, Pa., writes: "For two years I have prescribed Ayer's Sarsaparnia in animerous instances, and I find it highly rains is carried in ing water is of The fact that pe ticle of drinking

whore its great useful through a Pasti

This Pilter (an Daly De La

1003 cast Mala Sil NEW FALL AND WINES

LADIES HAVING LABOR who find it difficult to get the will find them at me 13-1t

$1.50. The best Lady S BOOT he st in the city. In common-sense h D. E. and F widths.

217 E. BROADS

CARPETS, CARRE

WE WILL